

Exploring the intersection of health and education outcomes with human rights

When: Wednesday, 24 August 2022, 9:00am-12:30pm

Where: Queensland Children's Hospital, Level 7 or virtually attend via ZOOM

Cost: Free

Register: <https://exploringtheintersectionofhealthandeducation.eventbrite.com.au>

This free seminar for parents, young people, health and education staff and the broader community is offered as part of Children's Health Queensland's (CHQ) Queensland Children's Gender Service (QCGS) Wear it Purple Day programming.

Speakers:

Leah (she/her) 19 years and Hugo (he/him) 19 years, Lived experience speakers. Sue (she/her) Parent of trans young person, Heather Corkhill (she/her), Senior Policy Officer Queensland Human Rights Commission and Olivia Donaghy (she/her), Coordinator QCGS.

This exciting line up of speakers will provide psychological, legislative and lived experience perspectives on how inclusive practice supports achieving equity in health and education outcomes for trans and gender diverse youth.

